AC-30 Boosts Efficiency and Productivity

Managing cash requires focused attention. Counting and securing money is most important and time consuming. Our AC-30 frees an employee from labor-intensive cash handling with far greater speed and efficiency.

The AC-30 is capable of serial number capture for rigorous tracking, counterfeit detection, and fitness sorting. It has two sorting pockets with a batch total of 200 notes and a reject pocket with a capacity of 100 notes.

Accurate Recognition Technology – The AC-30 checks RGB average data against genuine bank notes

Large, Programmable Display – The AC-30 also has a multi-currency capability of up to 48 denominations
